☞This is truly the "age of progress," and the American people are, beyond doubt, far ahead of all others. This is clearly demonstrated by the Sewing Machine—which is, strictly speaking, an American invention.
In this branch of manufacture, the EMPIRE SEWING MACHINE CO., office 616 Broadway, New York City, stands pre-eminent. Their "Improved Manufacturing Machine" has no rival. It is built on sound mechanical principles—is simple in construction—easily understood, and not liable to get out of order. Its sewing qualities, particularly on cloth and leather, cannot be equalled; and as such we recommend it to our friends and the public generally.

☞A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. THE POWERS OF SOUTH AMERICA.

The revolutions of South America are so frequent that it is difficult to keep in one's mind the political division of that portion of the western hemisphere. Within a few weeks another bouleversement has led to a change of rulers in one of its most famous states, and is destined, possibly, to bring about a change in its territorial character. It is well enough, therefore, to occasionally run our eye over what may be called a semi detached portion of our own continent, to notice the revolutions through which it has passed, and to study the existing character of the various nations into which it is divided. Besides the various aboriginal dialects existing in its interior, two languages are spoken in South America. In Brazil the speech is Portugese; in all the other countries, with the exception of the small English, Dutch and French colonies on the north-eastern coast, the prevalent tongue is Spanish. The total population of South America is not much more than half of the United States, and is not increasing with any considerable rapidity. There are many foreigners engaged in mercantile business in its large commercial cities, but, with the exception of Brazil, its shores are not touched by the great stream of European emigration.

Just now South America boasts of one empire, Brazil, which became independent of Portugal in 1822, and which has had two emperors, Pedro the First, and his son, the present monarch, Pedro the Second, who came to the throne in 1841. The population of Brazil is ten millions. The republics on the Atlantic side are four in number. Of these Paraguay became independent of Spain in 1811, has a population of 1,400,000 souls, and has for its president Carlos Antonio Lopez; Uruguay declared its independence of Spain in 1825, has a population of 250,000, its present temporary executive being Venencio Flores; the Argentine Confederation, known also as Buenos Ayres, dates its independence of Spain from 1814, has a population of 1,300,000, and its president is now Bartoolome Mitre; Venezuela became, with the rest of the Columbia states, independent of the Spanish mother country in 1818, contains a population of 1,500,000, and its president is now Juan Crysostomo Falcon. On the Pacific are also four republics. They are Chile, which shook off its allegiance to Spain in 1810, is peopled by a million and a half of souls, and has in its executive chair Jose Joaquin Perez; Bolivia, which declared its independence in 1825, has a population of almost two million, its president being Mariano Melgarejo; Peru, which gained its independence of Spain in 1821, is inhabited by two and a half million of people, Mariano Ignacio Pardo being dictator; and Ecuador, which as one of the Colombian States became independent in 1818, contains a population slightly exceeding a million, and has for its President Geronimo Carrion. There is one republic which borders both on the Atlantic and the Pacific, now known as the United States of Colombia. It originally consisted of the whole of the north-western portion of South America and declared its independence under the leadership of Bolivar in 1818, but in 1831 after his death it split into the three republics of Venezuela, New Garnada and Ecuador. Latterly New Granada has again assumed the old name. The population it 2,800,000. Its President, until recently, was Tomas Cipriano Mosquera, who is now deposed and the office is vacant. Colombia embraces one province or State, that of Panama, which should be properly considered as a part of Central America. The people of the nine republics all speak Spanish. The rest of South America is divided into English Guiana, with 150,000 inhabitants; French Guiana, with 30,000; Dutch Guiana, or Surinam with 55,000, and Patagonia, which has no organized government.—Hartford Courant.

VICTOR HUGO has written a letter about the abolition of capital punishment in Portugal. He says she now stand at the head of European nations. "You Portuguese have not ceased to be bold navigators. Formerly you led the van on the ocean; to-day you lead the vanguard of truth."

A WRITER in Frazer says that, by canon law, neither in the Romish nor the English church can a man be admitted to orders if blind of the left eye, though he may be blind of the right, on the ground that the former "is the more necessary of the two in the celebration of mass."

SAVING THE WOMEN.

We have never heard any explanation of the doctrine said to be inculcated with care in Utah, that women can only be saved through the agency of the men; and that in order to be glorified and exalted in Kingdom Come they must marry somebody of the male persuasion, no matter how many wives the male may already have. There must be some novel reasons given for this quaint article of faith, and we would really like to hear them as a matter of curiosity; and may be, if they will stand repeating, we will publish them for the enlightenment of the outside world, who are religiously supposed to be groping in the dark. Won't our cotemporaries give us the desired information? Don't keep your light under a bushel! Let your light shine!

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE".]

New York, Sep. 4.

Reports say the rising in Spain is increasing. A severe fight occurred near Costongas. The insurrectionists, except the leaders and about thirty followers, being cut to pieces. The Madrid official gazette declares that in Caledonia and Arragon the rebels everywhere were in full flight; also it announces that the insurgents in these provinces were beaten in several engagements. The loyal attitude of the army essentially contributed to this result and confidence was established.

London, 4.

A dispatch from Constantinople says, intelligence was received there that the British prisoners in Abyssinia gained their freedom. A Congress of the leading Democrats in Europe meets at Geneva on the 9th; Victor Hugo, Louis Blanc, Jules Favre, Garibaldi have signified their intention to be present. The object of the congress is to make a demonstration in favor of peace.

The Times to-day editorially comments on the correspondence in the Alabama case; and remarks that Seward shows by his dispatches that he is unwilling to forego by a definite settlement, his peculiar ground of complaint against England, and like a lawyer, less anxious for the judgment than to prolong the litigation. It asserts that the counter claims of England will balance those of the United States, and complains that Seward declines to adopt the plan of a mixed commission, proposed by himself; and concludes by saying that Stanley, all along acted in good faith and with a determination not to give capital to a certain class of American politicians who forever are seeking causes of complaints against England. But under the circumstances he will wait till the United States Government reduces its pretensions. A dispatch from Madrid says the Spanish fleet is in South American waters.

At Dublin a large meeting was held to-day, under the direction of the Reform League assemblage. Quite an orderly appearance was made and prolonged manifestations of sympathy for the Fenian convicts. Baden races was attended by an immense concourse of people. Nearly every nationality being represented. The principal event was the International St. Leger. The best English, French and German stock was entered. Won by the French horse Trocadero.

At Vienna it is reported that Von Beust is maturing a plan for the sale of the Church property in Austria, for the payment of the National debt with the proceeds.

Corporeal punishment has been abolished in the Prussian armies for soldiers of the second class.

Over one hundred and seventy thousand immigrants have arrived at this port since January. Arrangements are nearly completed for the dedicating the Antictam National Cemetery on the 17th. Gov. Swann presides; Governor Bradford delivers the oration. The canal investigation committe reports to the convention that frauds of an alarming magnitude have been committed in the management of canals. They recommend discontinuing the present system of repairs.

Chicago, 5.

The Times special says, Grant had a long and important interview with the President in relation to the Sickles order. Rumors are rife, that high words occurred, but nothing is divulged regarding the interview, by either. The friends of both agree, however, that the differences of opinion are irreconcilable regarding the enforcement of the reconstruction law. The amnesty proclamation will be issued in a few days. Only about one hundred persons are now under indictment to be excepted from its provision it is understood. An order removing Pope will soon be issued. Canby relieved Sickles to-day. The President remarked yesterday that one of the Cabinet ministers will soon be removed, meaning Seward. The correspondence between Seward, the Austrian and Mexican Ministers and Minister Dix is published, relative to the intervention in behalf of Max. Nothing new contained in it.

Chicago, 5.

Continued accounts are received of the spread of the yellow fever in Louisiana.

The Wisconsin Republican Convention yesterday re-nominated Gov. Fairchild and nearly all the present State officers.

Omaha dispatches say that thirty lodges of Brule Sioux, numbering 180, arrived at the North Platte from Camp Red Cloud, and will place themselves under the protection of the government. They have left the war path to resume friendly relations with the whites.

Advices from Kentucky say Governor Helm is not expected to live through the day.

Rochester, N. Y., 4.

A sail boat containing 14 persons capsized in the Lake this afternoon; nine persons were drowned—bodies unrecovered.

New York, 5.

Havana dates to the 1st say that Pierre Soule is at Havana. It is reported that some of the tax collectors in the middle counties have met with violence in the discharge of their duties. Mounted police will accompany them hereafter. Advices from Porto Rico state that troops, with heavy material for war, are being sent from Spain to provide against eventualities.

Chicago, 5.

The Tribune special says, Randall hopes soon to have a postal treaty with Spain that will enable him to open an American postal department in Cuba. At present, sixty thousand dollars worth of postal matter goes to Cuba and there is no American agent to take charge of it upon its arrival. Representatives of leading foreign powers interpret the President's movements as a deliberate attempt to defeat the Congressional plan of reconstruction. A special to the New York papers gives different versions of the interview between Grant and the President yesterday, conjecturing that serious difficulties has arisen. Both officers preserve a reticence on the subject. Nothing is definitely known as to the character of the interview, but it is thought Grant will soon be ordered back to army headquarters. Stedman is named as his successor in the War Office, but says he would not accept. The papers generally agree that the amnesty proclamation will be substantially as telegraphed. Grant concurs with the President's views in regard to that matter. The Tribune special says, it is a significant fact which has recently transpired, that Stanton himself urged Grant to accept the War Office.

Washington, Sep. 5.

Sickles' letter to Grant, written before the publication of the Attorney General's opinion, is published and is very lengthy. He says the charge that he has made an issue with the Supreme Court and defied its decrees, is utterly unfounded, but if the subordinate functionaries of the Court choose to execute his functions, he must be controlled; or the military authority established over these States, is defied and set at contempt. The issue made ostensibly with military commanders, is really with Congress. The same reason that induced him to stay the collection of the debts in the State courts was applied equally to cases in all the courts. He believes Congress, intending to secure the restoration of these States to the Union, made all other considerations subsidiary to this. The process of the courts musn't be allowed to override, the orders of Congress empowering him to make use of its measures. Sickles said he had never received any intimation directly or indirectly from his superiors in authority, that differed with him in this opinion. He says to allow the courts to exercise functions in this military district fraud and perjury would be opened by creditors to secure jurisdiction in the Federal courts in cases which rightfully belong to the State courts. The General proceeds to detail the circumstances leading to the issue of order No. 10, defending his course and concludes as follows: The reconstruction in the Carolinas has been done quietly without violence and without the actual exercise of force. It is known that the force is here and will be used if necessary; nor can I hesitate giving you, as my deliberate conviction, if civil agencies had been employed in the reconstruction, or allowed to control the military on measures taken, they would have failed—that failure would have rendered it necessary some time to resort to the military, not to preserve order, but to suppress violence. Blood so shed would have cried out to the people on whose soil it had fallen. When I consider how wide a chasm had been spanned; how much seemingly hopeless the the task achieved; how little remains to be done to secure all the dreadful war had waged, and how near is the approach to a returned Union, I can hardly realise to myself that all this is to be put at great peril and hazard by the measures which threaten to impair the authority and lessen the means of those on whom success or failure depend. I have only to express in the most respectful manner, my astonishment and regret that it has been done. Having performed my duty and presenting fully this report in faith and considerations bearing on important question at issue, I shall faithfully obey any order you may give me.

Several seizures of whiskey distilleries were made to-day. Rumor says the collector in the fourth district has taken possession of a large whisky bonded warehouse in which a brother of a Deputy Commissioner now in this city is said to be largely interested. There is a great flutter among the illegal whisky interest.

Late advices from St. Domingo state that Cabral had been offered the Presidency of Hayti by various towns which had risen against Salnave, and the office was not certainly accepted but Cabral was said to be on the Haytien frontiers. It was currenlty reported that Salnave was a fugutive; and the objective position seemed to be a union of Hayti and St. Domingo.

Washington special says Grant accuses the President of disloyalty in his movements (?) and will leave the Cabinet; but the Presidten does not care. Another special says Grant will leaves the Cabinet before the end of the week. Steedman has declined the office, but may be prevailed on to accept. Another special says the Attorney General is nearly to issue an opinion arguing that Sickles is individually liable for his interference with the property laws in the Carolinas.

Washington, 5.

Judge Kinney, United States Special Judicial Commissioner has just arrived from Fort Phil. Kearny, where he has been for six months. He has discharged the Utes. About 6,000 warriors composed of Sioux, Cheyennes and Arapahoes are now concentrated north of Fort Phil. Kearny who demand, as a condition of peace, that the soldiers be withdrawn from that country and the posts abandoned, and the roads to Virginia City given up. This country belongs to the Crow Indians with whom we are at peace, and the demand if complied with, the Judge thinks, may suspend, but will not settle the difficulty. He apprehends that the next demand will be to suspend work on the Pacific Railway, which is being built through this same country without the consent of the Indians. Judge Kinney confirms the report of the attack on Major Powell's party on the 2d of August, and is of the opinion that there were 200 Indians; that Major Powell killed nearly 200. Kinney thinks this defeat of the Indians may open the way for a treaty of peace; that one more punishment like that administered by Major Powell would give permanent peace.

Acting Indian Commissioner, Mix, received the following:

Additional from Washington—A recent circular from the Treasury Department; addressed to the principal collectors of customs on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, instructs them to enquire vigilantly into cases of violation of laws in relation to the Coolie trade; and report the infractions thereof immediately to that Department; as as well as to notify the nearest United States Attorney of the same.

Returns from the recent elections from all parts of Prussia and other States of the Confederation, show that the Liberal Candidates for North German Parliament are generally successful. The Liberal party will undoubtedly have a large, controling majority in the coming session in the Prussian Senate, and will be willing to accept the assurances given, that the Salesburg conference is a guarantee of the peace of Europe. The conference which has for some time been in progress here between the Prussian Government and the Hanoverian Nobles, resulted in the appointment of Baron Vincke, an eminent Prussian statesman, to preside over the Government of Hanover. His appointment, it is considered, will be peculiarly acceptable to the Hanoverians. Though a native of Prussia, he has an estate at Ostenwald, in Hanover, which he has made his habitual residence for many years.

Montgomey, 5.

The Conservative convention adjourned to-day, after adopting as a platform, the resolutions recently passed at the convention in Pennsylvania, viz:—promising to cherish, protect and defend the Constitution as the only rightful Government, and acknowledging the Supreme Court as the only arbiter of all conflicts of power under that instrument. Each State has an exclusive right to prescribe the qualifications of voters. The convention appended a resolution of its own, expressing an intention to cultivate relations of harmony between the two races, deal justly with the blacks, and instruct them in their duties to themselves, to society and the country; and appealing to them to place trust in them, and to deal cautiously with strangers, who bear no evidence they were honorable, where better known.

Headquarters, 5th Military District, New Orleans, Sep. 5.

Raleigh, 5.

The Republican Convention reassembled to-day. A large number were in favor of a permanent national organization. Many speeches, mostly favoring the proscription of the rebels and confiscating their property. No platform as yet adopted; but a resolution referring to confiscation and kindred matters was carried forward with cheering.

Mobile, 5.

Col. F. B. Shepperd, who was shot at Mount Vernon Arsenal a few weeks since by Capt. Shaff, U. S. A., has been put on trial before a military court-martial. The examination concluded to-day. The sentence was not promulgated. Sheppard was highly respected by the citizens.

TO AWAIT A REQUISITION.

Yesterday we stated that a man named Holland was arrested for killing two men on the Sweetwater about sixteen months ago. The mans's name is William Smith, alias "Whisky Bill;" and the men whom he killed were named Dick Holland and Charley Daily. He had an examination before Judge Titus, yesterday, who ordered him to be committed to await a requisition from the Governor of Dakota Territory. Four witnesses were examined.

Jacob P. Miller testified that about the 1st of June, 1866, the train that he was with, camped on this side of Sage Creek, about 25 miles from the South Pass. Defendant was with a train camped close by. Witness went over to this train and saw defendant and Holland both tight. Defendant asked Holland if he was "on it," and Holland said "yes." Immediately defendant drew a pistol and fired, and Holland fell dead. When the defendant drew the pistol, Holland attempted to get out his knife, but failed to do so before he was shot dead. Witness ran around a wagon, and while doing so defendant fired another shot and Daily, who was sitting on a wagon tongue, immediately fell over, exclaiming "I am shot!" Then a man named Robert Soloman, leaped on to the defendant and took the pistol away from him. Witness recognized the prisoners as the man who did the shooting. Holland was shot in the breast and instantly killed. Daily was shot through the bowels, was alive when witness saw him last, which was on the next morning, but understood he died that day and was buried there.

Charles Welch testified that he was there about half an hour after the shooting occurred: and saw one man (Holland) dead, and another (Daily) badly wounded by a shot through the bowels. Saw the man accused doing the shooting then, but wouldn't swear that the defendant was the same person; thought he was. Heard Daily say he was shot accidentally by defendant and the statement was then taken down on a shingle or a piece of board.

Henry Catlett testified that he heard the shots—he thinks two—and was there in about twenty minutes after the shooting. He found one man dead, another wounded by a shot through the bowels, and a third a prisoner in the hands of another man. Daily, the wounded man, said in the hearing of witness that he did not know why they shot him. Thinks the prisoner was the man who was in custody, but will not swear positively.

Louis Lawson testified that he saw Daily alive the next day after the shooting; that he died that afternoon and that he helped to bury him. He recognized the prisoner as Whisky Bill, the one who did the shooting that resulted in Holland and Daily's death.

MONTANA ELECTION.—Up to the hour of going to press we have no news of the result of last Monday's election in Montana for Delegate in Congress. The prospects seemed favorable for Cavanaugh.

LEWIS DOWNING, the newly elected Chief of the Cherokees, served during the war as lieutenant-colonel of a regiment of loyal Indians, commanded by Colonel William A. Phillips, of Kansas. He is said to be a man of intelligence and education.

STANDS ADJOURNED.—The United States Court was adjourned yesterday by Judge Titus until the second Monday in December next. The United States Grand Jury had adjourned over until to-day before the court adjourned.

TWO MORE DESERTERS. — On Thursday morning two of the boys in blue who were detailed to remain with a part of Gen. Dodge's outfit that did not leave Camp Douglas until yesterday morning, gobbled up a third, who was on duty as guard, "whaled" him like blazes, and then departed for parts unknown. They were tired "sojering," and concluded to change occupation.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—We are informed that private dispatches say that California has gone for Haight, Democrat, for Governor, by between seven and eight thousand majority. The City of San Francisco went for Gorham, Union, largely, but the interior counties did the work for Haight. No news in relation to the other candidates is reported yet. The fight was narrowed to the Governorship. The Democrats and old line Republicans leaving no stone unturned to defeat the Union nominee.

FANCHON.—We attended the theatre on Thursday evening to see Miss Amy Stone perform the part of Cricket in this play. It was her first appearance on the boards here, and sufficient curiosity was manifested by the public to fill the capacious theatre from pit to dome. Although not much given to flattering all sorts of theatrical characters we are constrained to say she performed her part remarkably well, and with such a degree of naturalness as rendered it very entertaining. Whether as the romping, ragged orphan girl, full of light-hearted vivacity and playful rudeness; the despised, forlorn, but virtuous, reflective maiden; or the true hearted, unselfish, proud, but meek woman, she portrayed the traits of each so exquisitely fine that she deserves commendable mention. McKenzie as Father Barbeaud could not be much improved on. His determined parental obstinacy was fine; and his surrender to the Cricket's persuasion, and sudden admiration for her apparent unselfish pride was a good picture of a grouty, "never-surrender" old codger coming to himself as his reason is cooling. The other characters were not so prominent, but we must confess there was a fitness throughout in each, and in the acting that rendered the play tolerable and entertaining.

We surmise, however, this is her "speciality." Should she do as well in other pieces and be as well supported the good people of this city will no doubt appreciate it.

Fanchon will bear repeating.

Wit and Wisdom.

The Russian Emperor is said to manifest symptoms of insanity.

Secretary Stanton has an ample fortune acquired by extensive practice as a lawyer.

Brazil has called for 30,000 free negroes to enter the army and fight the Paraguayans.

The boarding house association of New York for sewing girls is doing a good work.

Isaac Spaulding is the richest man in New Hampshire, having an income of $1,000 a week.

A letter from Texas says the freedmen are everywhere docile "and willing to do right, with few exceptions."

An English tavern-keeper recently illustrated punctuality in this wise. Speaking of one of his customers, he said: "He is the most regular man in Harwick; he comes and gets drunk every Saturday, and has done so for ten years, except when his mother died, and at that time he came on Sunday. It is a grand thing to be punctual.

General Beauregard has organized, at New Orleans, the "Electric Brake Company of America;" he is President, and Colonel Blanton Duncan, of Delaware, Superintendent. It is claimed that a railway train, running forty-four miles an hour, can be stopped by electricity within between fifty and one hundred yards.

One of the greatest object of pity in the country is a farmer in Eaton county, Michigan, who is holding on to eight hundred bushels of old wheat until he can get four dollars a bushel for it. He probably doesn't take the papers and thinks his granary the sole dependence of the land.

The young women in Indiana are trying to rival their ball-playing friends by taking parts in the corquet matches. A game which occupied two hours, and which is said to have been very exciting, was lately played between the "Hoosiers" of Greencastle and the "Lafayettes" of the latter place, there being two ladies and two gentlemen on each side.

The European Nations are constantly armed with the most approved weapons. The Strasburg journals state that an order for one hundred and eighty thousand Chaseport muskets has been given to the arms manufactory at Mutzig, to the vicinity of that city. They are to be delivered in three years —sixty thousand per annum. How very strange it is that nations that are always talking about peace should spend all the money they can gather together in preparations for war!

The National Academy and the American Association.

The National Academy of Sciences is now in session at Hartford. The limited number of members, and the small proportion of them who are taking active parts in this meeting, render the proceedings less generally interesting and various, than they might otherwise be. It remains to be seen whether the Academy will exert the peculiar influence contemplated in its organization. It has been supposed that this institution was intended to be for us what the French Academy is to France. So far, the aristocratic and exclusive spirit is wanting. The spirit of the French Academy is the growth of centuries, and it may be as difficult to legislate a fac-smile, as to make a new Grandee of Spain. Possibly it may be as undisirable. At all events, our National Academy does not make itself ridiculous by any such assumptions. Its distinguished members are active in other scientific assosiations at the same time, and, to all outward appearance, they behave in one relation just as they do in the other. The present meeting of the Academy is not to be distinguished, except by its small members, from the meeting of any voluntary scientific association. As a National institution, it can only be worthily sustained by an enlightened liberality on the part of the Government, which has thus far been wanted. The National Academy relies, like any other of our learned societies, upon the enthusiasm and generosity of individuals.

The National Academy of Science was incorporated in 1863. Its present members are:

Louis Agassiz, Alexander E. R. Agassiz, Wilcott Gibbs, Benjamin A. Gould, Benjamin Pierce, Joseph Winlock, Cambridge, Mass.; Stephen Alexander, Arnold Guyot, Princeton, N. J.; Frederick A. P. Barnard, John Call Dalton, John Strong Newberry, Ogden N. Rood, Lewis M. Rutherford, John Torrey, New York City; John G. Barnard, Wm. H. C. Barttell, Andrews A. Humphreys, Dennis H. Mahan, United States Army; Spencet F. Baird, Joseph Henry, Julius E. Hilyard, Montgomery C. Mayo, Joseph Saxton, Washington, D. C.; Alexis Caswell, Providence, R. I.; Wm. ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness inclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair. Address,
